

JOIN OUR TALENTED AND DYNAMIC TEAM!

E.L. Haynes Public Charter School in Washington, DC is seeking exceptional elementary teachers and teaching fellows. Here are four reasons why E.L. Haynes is the place to be:

- ▶ A Unique Opportunity. Be part of the founding team that continues to build one of the premier public schools in the nation's capital. You can help shape an institution that will have a lasting impact in D.C. and beyond.
- ▶ A Talented Team. Work with a team of exceptional teachers and administrators who are experienced, committed, team-oriented, and mission driven.
- ▶ A Powerful Mission. Become part of the solution. We are determined to close the achievement gap by making sure every one of our students successfully graduates from the college of his/ her choice.
- ▶ A Strong Culture. Join a culture that is driven by our core values -- Be Kind, Work Hard, Get Smart. We believe that respect, diligence, and a hunger to learn fuels success—whether you're a student headed to college or a staff member committed to getting them there.

About E.L. Haynes Public Charter School

E.L. Haynes is a year-round school which opened in August 2004 and serves a diverse student body from throughout Washington, DC. Named after Dr. Euphemia Lofton Haynes, a veteran D.C. teacher and the first African-American woman to receive a doctorate in mathematics, Haynes served 190 PreK-4th graders in the 2006-2007 school year and will grow until it serves more than 600 PreK-12th graders. Haynes' promise is to provide every student with an outstanding education, every family with a welcoming and respectful environment, every teacher with a fulfilling and professional place to work, and every community member with a school to take pride in.

Compensation

E. L. Haynes offers competitive salary and benefits comparable to those in the District of Columbia Public Schools. Haynes is an equal opportunity employer.
